GOALS

I need of a trustworthy, reliable and caring individual to care for two small dogs while family is on occasionally lengthy vacations.

FRUSTRATIONS

Cannot impose on relatives or friends for occasional but long-term vacations.

BIO

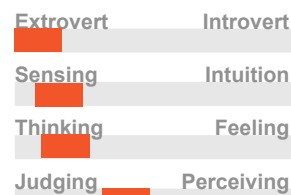

I want to provide my family with unique and exciting vacation experiences but many of our destinations, often overseas, are unable to accommodate pets. We were in need of reliable and expert assistance taking care of Lincoln and Tucker for one to two weeks at a time.

QUOTE

Our family has relied on Rumi for about three years now. Most important thing you should know is that she's reliable, and trustworthy. She spends at least 30 minutes with each visit. Rumi shows up twice a day, waking them up, feeding them, taking them for walks, cleaning up after them, and putting Lincoln and Tucker to bed each night.

She sends a text with each visit, including a picture of the dogs. We have surveillance video that let's me check in on the dogs when we're away, and I can tell you that she ALWAYS shows up when she says she does, and gives my pups the attention they deserve. I would highly recommend them!
